INDEX TO VOL. X.

The titles of articles are printed in italics.

ABE

ABERDEENSHIRE, land tenure in, 794–799
— the farmers' agitation in, 800–810
Addison, his quarrel with Pope, 847–849
Adler (Dr. Hermann), Recent Phases of Judæophobia, 813–829
Africa, gold of, 463–464
Africa, North, France and, 448–454
Africa, South, commercial policy of, 51
Agricultural labourer, condition of the, 268–271
— dwelling of the, 271–273
Agriculture, depression of, 174–175, 195, 610–611
— the true source of the national wealth, 178
Alcock (Sir Rutherford), Opium and Common Sense, 834–868
America, results of protection in, 164, 172, 624, 626
— commercial produce of, 434–435
— gold production of, 465–468
— the Jews in, 498–499
— small-pox epidemics in, 548–549
— the copyright question in, 726–734
Anatomy Act, the, 947
Animals, differences between man and other, 147–157
Annan, river, 1
Annornia arcens, an African species of ant, 254
Anthrax, a cattle plague, 544–545
Antiseptic surgery, 541
Ants, Intelligence of, 245–258
Arab Monuments of Egypt, the, 276–283
Arcady, my Return to, 259–275
Architecture, cathedral, 737–743
Army recruits, physique of, 83
Australasia, trade of, with England, 44–45, 181
Australia, commercial policy of, 50–51
— production of gold in, 468–470
Austria, Herrenhaus of, 56

BEA

BABER (Mr.), report of, on opium cultivation in China, 862
Badcock (Mr.), his experiments in vaccination, 551–552
Baden, Upper Chamber of, 56
Baden-Powell (George), New Markets for British Produce, 43–55
Bankrupts, our, what shall we do with them? 308–316
Baptism in the English Church, 750–753
Bartlett (Dr. H. C.), on the chemistry of wheat, 345
Bates (Mr.), his observations of ants, 245, 246, 253–254
Baur (Professor F. C.), 92–93
Bavaria, Chamber of Reichsräthe of, 56
Beaconsfield (Earl), a teacher of spiritual truths, 870
Becket, Archbishop, local associations of, 299
Belgian Senate, the, 57
Belt (Mr.), his observations of ants, 247, 257, 258
Bevington (Miss L. S.), How to eat Bread, 341–356
Bible, reading of the, with reference to the Hebrew books, 515
— Jewish defence of the, 817–819
Blandford (Marquis of), Hereditary Rulers, 217–235
Bliss (Dr.), 899
Blount (Martha), Pope's liking for, 850–851
Board of Trade, proposed supervision of the Bankruptcy Court by the, 312–313
Board schools, provision of meals and gymnastic exercises for children at, 86–89
Boileau and Pope, 830–855
Bolton, distress at, in 1836–40, 599, 624
Bookworm, an Old, Gossip of, 63–79, 886–900
Brabazon (Lord), Health and Physique of our City Populations, 80–89

BRA

Brain, nutrition of the, 347–348
Brain-work, conditions of, 424
Brazil, constitution of, 57
— gold-mining in, 462–463
Bread, how to eat, 341–356
Brown (Rev. J. Baldwin), The Last Great Dream of the Crusade, 701–722
Buccaneering in the sixteenth century, 406
Büchner, his observation of ants, 257

CAIRO, modern, 270–280
Campbell (Alexander), the 'Disciples' of, 238
Canada, commercial policy of, 50
Carey (H. C.), on copyright, 724–725
Carlisle (Bishop of), Man's Place in Nature, 142–160
Carlyle, Thomas, the Early Life of, 1–42
Carlyle family, 2–3
Carlyle a spiritual teacher, 870
Carpenter (Dr. W. B.), Disease-Germs, 538–554
Cathedrals, architecture of, 737–743
Caucus system, the, 204–205
Cavendish, the buccaneer, death-bed letter of, 406–407
Cerealine, a chemical principle of wheat, 345
Chamber, Upper, functions of an, 231
Chamberlain (Rt. Hon. J.), his speech at Birmingham on the Irish Land Bill, 107–108
— Bankruptcy Bill of, 312
Chambers, Second, 56–62
Charbon, an epizootic disease, 542–544
— 'vaccination' of sheep for, 545–546
Child Life for Children, 567–572
China, history of the opium trade in, 856–858
— cultivation of the poppy in, 859–862
Chippewa Indians, 693
Church, Christian, institutions and usages of the, 881–884
Church of Christ, Unity in the, 120–130
Circumcision, rite of, 814
City Populations, Health and Physique of our, 80–89
Clark (Rev. H.), his observation of ants, 247
Clere, Elizabeth, letter of, 412
Clergymen, country, condition of, 266–268
Clifford (Sir Lewis de), mortuary injunctions of, 413
— (Professor), his advocacy of Darwinism, 579
Clôture, need of a, in England, 326
Cobden on the rate of wages in connection with the price of corn, 622
Colonies, commercial policy of the, 47–52
— constitutions of the, 57–59
Columbus, career of, 713–718

DUB

Columbus' dream of the crusade, 719–722
Commons, House of, the Deadlock in the, 317–340
Compensation for Disturbance Bill, rejection of, by the Peers, 188
Comstock Lode, 466–467
Confiscation and Compensation, 107–119
Constitutional government, 219
Coombe (William), writings of, 76
Copyright, International, 723–734
Corn, proposed duty on, 177, 180, 594–595
Corn laws, evils of the, 199
— periods of national distress under the, 623–624
— effects of the abolition of the, 430
Corners, Commercial, 532–537
Corvée, the, in Egypt, 645–646
Cosmic Emotion, Pantheism and, 284–295
Cotton corner, the, 534–537
County Characteristics—Kent, 296–307
Cowper, correspondence of, 414
Croker (Crofton), his description of Sir Walter Ralegh's house at Youghal, 680
Crown, British, limited power of the, 223
Crusade, the Last Great Dream of the, 701–722
Crusaders, Jewish abuse of the, 501–503
— brutality of the, 823
Customs unions, 47

DALLAM Tower, story of the herons and rooks at, 149
Danes' holes at East Tilbury, 307
Darent, river, scenery of the, 305
Darwin (Erasmus), scientific optimism of, 573–574
Darwinism, optimistic interpreters of, 577–587
Deadlock, the, in the House of Commons, 317–340
De la Warr (Earl), France and North Africa, 448–454
Denmark, Upper Chamber of, 57
Derby (Earl of), Ireland and the Land Act, 473–493
Desmond, eighth earl of, 660–661
— Countess Catherine of, 679
Despair, a Dramatic Monologue, 629–640
Dillon (Frank), The Arab Monuments of Egypt, 276–283
Disease-Germs, 538–554
Dover, Hubert de Burgh's defence of, 300
Dredging Ground, a, 131–141
Dryden, poetry of, 833
Du Bois-Reymond (Professor), his optimistic interpretation of Darwinism, 577–578

Dufferin (Lord), Ulster estates of, 114–115
— (Lady), letter of, 415–416
Dumfriesshire, Cameronian spirit of, 1
Dunraven (Earl of), 'The Revolutionary Party,' 184–205
— Sheep-hunting in the Mountains, 683–700

EBRARD, his observation of ants, 254–255
Ecclefechan, 2
Eciton, a genus of ants, 251–254, 257–258
Ecroyd (W. Farrer), Fair Trade, 588–621
Edward I., expulsion of the Jews by, 505, 824
Edward III., 300
Edwards (Mr. E.), on the English 'practices against rebels' in Ireland, 667
Egypt, the Arab Monuments of, 276–283
— the Administrative Machinery of, 641–659
Egypt, history of gold in, 463–464
Eliot (George), fiction of, 520–521
— spiritual aims of her writings, 870–871
Ellendorf (Dr.), his observations of ants, 246, 257
Elliot (Rt. Hon. Hugh), his embassy at the court of Frederick the Great, 418
— letter of, to Gustavus III., 419
Englishmen, physical superiority of, 80–83
— practical character of, 218
Entail, law of, 803
Episcopacy, 125
Established Church, the question of an, 124–125
Europeans in the Egyptian service, 649–653
Evolution, theory of, 147
— theories of life founded on, 575–587
Evolution, Place of Revelation in, 382–404
Exports, British, during the last fifteen years, 606. See Imports.

FACE, the human, 156–157
Fair Trade, 588–621
— the Workman's View of, 430–447
Fair Trade League, the Proposals of the, 622–628
Farmers, English, present condition of, 263–265
— Scotch, 794–799
— — land-law agitation of the, 800–812
Fermentation, theory of, 539–549
Fiction, Fair and Foul, 516–531
Field sports, 409, 925
Fitzstrathearn (or Strange Petrie), his letter relating to the 'Princess Olive of Cumberland'), 894
Flanagan (J. Woulfe), The Irish Jacobins, 785–793
Fleeson (Captain), his observation of ants, 250
Fleury (Cardinal), his observation of ants, 256
Foliot (Bishop), his letter to Becket on ecclesiastical jurisdiction, 410–411
Forster (Mr.), on the question of compensation for Irish landlords, 109
Foster (Professor M.), on the vivisection question, 942
Fowle (Rev. T. W.), Place of Revelation in Evolution, 382–404
France, Senate of, 57
— the suffrage in, 357–359
— conduct of elections in, 360–363
— what Protection has done for, 626–627
— legislation in, 326
— commercial treaty with, 445–446
— the Jews in, 497
— stuff goods of, in English markets, 618–619
— poetry of, 834–835
France and North Africa, 448–454
Fraser (Professor), on the vivisection question, 941–942
Frederick the Great, anecdotes of, 418
Free Trade, Isolated, 161–183
Free trade in the colonies, 46–47
Freeman (Mr.) on the Jewish settlements in England, 505
French Revolution, analogies of the Irish land agitation to the, 786–791
Frere (Sir Bartle), The Scotch Land Question, 794–812
Froude (J. A.), The Early Life of Thomas Carlyle, 1–42
— his silence respecting Sir Walter Ralegh's Irish career, 661, 667
— his account of the massacre at Smerwick Castle, 662–663
Funerals in the fifteenth century, 413

GAME laws in Scotland, 797
Garfield, President, 236–244
Gaskell (Charles Milne), The Position of the Whigs, 901–912
Gavelkind, law of, 298
Gentility, the mark of, 691
Germany, the Jewish question in, 509–512, 825–826
Gibbon, historical method of, 91
Gilbert (Dr.), on the bread question, 344, 348–349
Gladstone (Rt. Hon. W. E.) on the decline of the national wealth, 195
Gold, the Future of, 455–472

Gordon, Margaret, an acquaintance of Carlyle, 19–20
Gossip of an Old Bookworm, 63–79, 886–900
Gothic style, the, 738
Gough (Thomas), his account of a war between herons and rooks, 149
Government, constitutional, 219
Granville (Dr. J. Mortimer), Worry, 423–429
Greece, Legislative Assembly of, 57
Greenfield (Dr.), on the vivisection question, 941
Greenwich, 300
Grenville library, the, 78
Gretna Green, marriages at, 411–412
Grey, Earl, on the commercial policy of the colonies, 50
Grievance, petition of, 335–336
Guizot (M.), his description of the distress in Bolton, 599, 624

HALHED (William B.), On Commercial 'Corners,' 532–537
Harkness (Miss Margaret E.), Women as Civil Servants, 369–381
Harrison (Frederic), Pantheism and Cosmic Emotion, 284–295
— the Deadlock in the House of Commons, 317–340
Hartington (Marquis of), on disestablishment, 186
Harvey, vivisections of, 931–932
Hayman (Rev. Samuel), his description of Sir Walter Ralegh's house at Youghal, 680
Hennessy (Sir John Pope), Sir Walter Ralegh in Ireland, 660–682
Henry of Portugal, Prince, maritime discoveries of, 712
Hereditary Rulers, 217–235. See also Chambers, Second
Hewlett (Henry G.), County Characteristics—Kent, 298–307
Highways, our, 555–566
Hill (Mr.), letters of, to Carlyle, 9–11
Holmesdale, Vale of, 301–302
Home Office, Industrial Schools and the, 913–919
Home Rule movement, popularity of the, 489–491
— objects of the, 786–787
— views of the Government on the, 792
Hood (Thomas), his classification of poetry, 830
Hook (Theodore), 897–899
Hooker, his records of Ralegh's doings in Ireland, 664–665
Hops, cultivation of, in Kent, 302–303
Hume, argument of, against miracles, 389–394
Humphry (Professor), on the vivisection question, 943

Hungary, House of Magnates of, 56
Hunt (Leigh), his definition of poetry, 831
Hunter (John), his treatment of aneurisms derived from vivisection, 932–933
Hypothec, the law of, 798–799

IMPORTS, excess of, over exports, 590–591, 611–614
India, opium trade of, with China, 865–867
— Saracenic monuments of, 277
Indians, North American, 688, 693
Industrial Schools and the Home Office, 913–919
Instinct, definition of, 147–148
Ireland and the Land Act, 473–493
— Sir Walter Ralegh in, 660–682
Ireland, right of the landlords to compensation in, 107–119
Irish questions, treatment of, by the House of Lords, 59, 188–189
Irish Jacobins, the, 785–793
Irving (Edward), his friendship with Carlyle, 5–6, 14–15
— letters of, to Carlyle, 28, 30, 33, 35, 38, 40
— his conversation with Carlyle on religion, 34–35
Italy, love poetry of, 770, 772–773

JACOBINS, the Irish, 785–793
Jessopp (Rev. Dr.), My Return to Arcady, 259–275
Jewish Question, the, 494–515
Jews, persecutions of, to what causes due, 497–499, 816
— occupations of the, 507, 819–821
— persecutions of, in Russia, 826–829
Johnson (Dr.), Sir J. Reynolds's portrait of, 888
Judæophobia, Recent Phases of, 813–829
Junius Letters, authorship of, 76

KAIRWÂN, the religious capital of Tunis, 451
Kelp, trade in, 139–140
Kemble, the historian, 75, 890
Kent, characteristics of, 297–307
Killary Bay, 132–133
Kings, divine right of, 219
Koch (Dr.), his investigation of the splenic fever of animals, 543
Kreplin (Herr H.), his observation of ants, 258

LABOUR, capital of, 167–168
Land, Radical theory respecting, 191–192, 196–197
Land Act, Ireland and the, 473–493

LAN

Land Act, 321, 809, 810
— the Parliamentary wrangling over the, 322–325
Land Court, obstacles to the success of the, 484–486
Land laws, reform of the, 910–911
Landlords, Irish, how affected by the Land Act, 474–478
Land Question, the Scotch, 794–812
Language, 150–151
La Rochefoucauld, 839–840
Laveleye (Emile de), The Future of Gold, 455–472
Lawless (Hon. Emily), A Dredging Ground, 131–141
Lawrence (Bishop), letter of, to Dr. Lee, 761–762
Leavitt (Dr.), on the refusal of international copyright in America, 725
Lecky (Mr.), on the policy of Queen Elizabeth's Government in Ireland, 672–673
Lee (Rev. Dr. F. G.), The Order of Corporate Reunion, 744–762
Leicester, Church Congress at, 121
Lespis, his observation of ants, 248
Lessing, scepticism of, examined in the light of evolution, 395–400
Letters, English, four Centuries of, 405–422
Leuckhart (Professor), his observation of ants, 256
Leycester (Catherine), afterwards Mrs. Stanley, 873
Liebrecht (Felix), 77–78
Life-Peerage Bill, 232
Lincecum (Dr.), his observation of ants, 249
Lister (Professor), antiseptic surgery of, 541
Liverpool, the Future Cathedral of, 735–743
Lords, House of, its unique position as an hereditary Chamber, 56
— treatment of Irish questions by the, 59, 188–189
— feeling of the Lower House towards the, 61
— functions of, how discharged, 187–188
— history of the hereditary principle in the, 221–222
— obstructive power of the, 226
— vital connection of the monarchy with the, 224, 228
— how to reform the, 230–233
— condition of the, 234
Loyd-Lindsay (Colonel Sir R.), The Coming of Age of the Volunteers, 206–216
Lyttelton (Lord) not the author of the 'Letters of Junius,' 76
Lytton (Earl of), A New Love Poet, 763–784

NAP

MACAULAY (Lord), his prophecy respecting the House of Lords, 60
— book-quests of, 65
McCarthy (J. G.), his summary of Ralegh's career in Ireland, 681–682
McCook (Mr.), his observation of ants, 255, 256
Mackay (Dr. Charles), Boileau and Pope, 830–855
Magnus (Mrs.), on the Mohammedan sympathies of the mediæval Jews, 502–503
Maidstone, defence of, in the Civil War, 306
Mainhill, early home of Carlyle, 11–12
Maize, uses of, 435
Manchester (Duke of), Isolated Free Trade, 181–183
Man's Place in Nature, 142–160
Mariette Pasha, 279
Markets, New, for British Produce, 43–55
Marriages in the fifteenth century, 411–413
— curious Kentish custom at, 307
— Jewish, 814
Martin (Dr.), his vaccinations from heifer-lymph, 549
Medical Congress, International, 538
Messiah, the Jews' hope of, 815
Midleton (Viscount), Our Highways, 555–566
Mill (J. S.), his scheme of Irish land reform, 111
Millet (Jean François), 517–519
Milman (Dean), 877
Miracles, M. Renan and, 90–106
Miracles, arguments against, answered by help of evolution, 389–395
'Mist's Letters,' 891–892
Mitchell, Robert, a correspondent of Carlyle, 12
Moggridge (Mr.), his observations of ants, 247–249, 255
Mohammed Ali, his employment of Europeans, 648–649
Mohammedanism, influence of, upon Arab art, 278
— favoured by the mediæval Jews, 502–503
Mommsen, historical method of, 91
Mongredien (M.), 170, 592
Montenegro, legislature of, 57
Müller (Max), on language, 150
Murray (Thomas), letter of, to Carlyle, 12–13
Myers (F. W. H.), M. Renan and Miracles, 90–106

NALSON, (John), his 'Journal' of Charles the First's trial, 72
Napier (Lord), Chinese mission of, 856–857

NAT

Nature, Man's Place in, 142–160
Nature, definition of, 384–385
Nelson (Earl), Unity in the Church of Christ, 120–130
Netherlands, Upper Chamber of, 57
Newman (Cardinal) on baptism in the English Church, 750
Newton (Sir Isaac), relic of, picked up at a bookstall, 74
Norway, Lagthing of, 57
Novels, modern, 516, 520, 521

OGHAM stones, 672
Oliphant (Mr.), on the influence of the Jews in Europe, 496
— on the restoration of Palestine to the Jews, 513
O'Neill (John), assassination of, 669–670
Operatives, condition of, 163–164
Ophiocoma filiformis, a star-fish, 137
Opium and Common Sense, 834–868
Optimism, Scientific, 573–587
Order of Corporate Reunion, the, 744–762
Ordinations, Anglican, questioned, 754
Over-work, 425–429
Owen (Professor), Vivisection, 931–935

PAGET (Sir James), Vivisection, 920–930
Palestine, restoration of, to the Jews, 51
Pantheism, and Cosmic Emotion, 284–295
Parliament, reform of, should include the Upper House, 61–62
— defects of our system of government by, 317–318
— the system of 'urgency' in, 327–328
— 'questions' in, 336–338
Pasteur (M.), germ theory of, 540–541
— his applications of the theory to the study of disease, 541–546
Paston (Elizabeth), marriage of, 412–413
Pauperism in 1842 and 1879, 434
Pébrine, a disease of silkworms, 541
Peerages, life, 232
Penenden Heath, 299
'Pentamerone,' the, 77
Petrarch, sonnet-composition of, 768
Phosphorus, connection of, with thought, 347–348
Poet, a new Love, 763–784
Poetry, what it is, 830–831
Poor, children of the, 85
Pope, his view of human nature, 144
Pope, Boileau and, 830–855
Poppy, cultivation of, in China, 850–862
Portugal, chamber of peers of, 56

RUS

Portuguese, the first importers of opium into China, 858
Potter (George), The Workman's View of Fair Trade, 430–447
Prescott (W. Hickling), on international copyright 728
Primogeniture, 803
Pro-cathedral, the term, 735
Produce, British, New Markets for, 43–55
Protection, condition of countries where it prevails, 164, 172
— future re-establishment of, in England, 179–180
— hydra-headed character of, 430
— selfish motives of, 437–438
— a failure in the past, 623
Prussia, Herrenhaus of, 56

RADICALISM, the danger of, 184–205
Rae (W. Fraser), on the commercial importance of Tripoli, 453
— International Copyright, 723–734
Ralegh, Sir Walter, in Ireland, 660–682
Reason, exercise of, by the lower animals, 149
Reciprocity, 431–432
— identity of, with 'fair trade,' 436
Reinach (Joseph), Scrutin de Liste and Scrutin d'Arrondissement, 357–367
Religion, work of, 291–293
Renan, M., and Miracles, 90–106
Renan (M.), on the Jews, 509, 823
Reunion, Corporate, Order of, 744–762
Revelation, Place of, in Evolution, 382–404
Revolutionary Party, the, 184–205
Revolutions, political consequences of, 228
— objects of, 810
Reynolds (Sir J.), his portrait of Dr. Johnson, 888
— his picture of Puck, 889
Rhyme, 834–835
— Pope's faults of, 851–852
Riaz Pasha, 648, 659
Roads, early English, 555–556
— management of the, 558–566
Rogers (Samuel), a brief letter of, 416
Romanes (George J.), Intelligence of Ants, 245–258
Romney Marsh, 304
Rossiter (Elizabeth), Child Life for Children, 567–572
Rowsell (F. W.), The Administrative Machinery of Egypt, 641–659
Roxburghe Library, 64
Royal supremacy, the, 124–125
Ruskin (John), Fiction, Fair and Foul, 516–531

RUL

Rulers, Hereditary, 217–235. See also Chambers, Second
Russia, persecutions of the Jews in, 826–829

ST. PAUL'S Cathedral, Wren's original plan for, 740–743
St. Paul's Industrial School, 913–914
Sainte-Beuve (M. de), his criticism of Boileau, 841
Sanderson (Prof. Burdon), his investigation of an epidemic of anthrax, 544
Saracenic monuments of India, 277
Saxony, Upper Chamber of, 56
School Board, its duty of supervising industrial schools, 915–916, 918
Science repressed by Act of Parliament, 941
Scientific Optimism, 573–587
Scoones (W. B.), his 'Four Centuries of English Letters,' 405, 420–421
Scotch Land Question, the, 794–812
Scott (Sir Walter), fiction of, 521–531
Scrutin de Liste and Scrutin d'Arrondissement, 357–367
Seals, eating of, in Ireland, 138–139
Serres (Mrs.), 73–74, 892–895, 900
Sfax, capture of, 450–451
Shakespeare, his view of human nature, 144
— poetry of, 832
Sheep, plague among, 543, 545
Sheep-hunting in the Mountains, 683–700
Sherbrooke (Viscount), What shall we do with our Bankrupts? 308–316
Sheridan (Richard Brinsley), granddaughters of, 415
Shérif Pasha, 648
Shindler (Rev. Robert), President Garfield, 236–244
Shipping, British merchant, 611–612
Siberia, gold production of, 465
Silkworm disease, 541
Simon (Mr,), on the vivisection question, 940–941
Sioux Indians, 688, 693
Slave-owners, West Indian, the grant of compensation to, 110
Small-pox, relation between cow-pox and, 547–550
Smerwick Castle, the massacre at, 362–363
Smith (Professor Goldwin), The Jewish Question, 494–515
— reply to, 813–829
Smith (Sydney), letter of, 416
Socrates, his conclusion concerning the visible universe, 102
— his view of the moral obligations and future destiny of man, 145
— on the causes of human action, 158–159
Sonnet, the, 766–768

TUR

Spain, senate of, 56
— former persecutions of the Jews in, 506, 842
Speaker, power of the, 327–328
Speculation, commercial, 532–533
Spencer (Herbert), optimist doctrines of, 580–587
Spenser, friendship of, with Ralegh, 678
Spider, trap-door, habits of the, 154
Spinoza, argument of, against miracles, 389–394
Stanley (Dean) as a Spiritual Teacher and Theologian, 869–885
Stanley (Hon. E. Lyulph), Industrial Schools and the Home Office, 913–919
Star-fish, thread-rayed brittle, 137
Steeple-chasing, 409
Sterling (John), letter of, to Carlyle, 414
Story (Justice) on international copyright, 728
Suess (Dr.), his work on the future of gold, 456
Suffrage, the, in France, 357–359
Sullivan (Sir Edward), Isolated Free Trade, 161–180
— reply to, 439–444
Sully (James), Scientific Optimism, 573–587
Sweden, Upper Chamber of, 57
— services of Mr. Hugh Elliot to, 418–419
Switzerland, constitution of, 57
Sykes (Colonel), his observation of ants, 256

TAINE (M.), his history of the French Revolution, 786–791
Taverner (Richard), his translations of Erasmus, 86
Taylor (Sir Henry), Four Centuries of English Letters, 405–422
Tenants, Irish, how affected by the Land Act, 478–480
Tennyson (Alfred), Despair, 629–640
Thiele (Dr.), experiments of, with small-pox virus, 550–551
Thoms (W. J.), Gossip of an Old Bookworm, 63–79, 886–900
Ticknor (George) on international copyright, 728–729
Trade, British, with foreign countries and the colonies, compared, 44–45 — depression of, 193–195, 198
Tripoli, French designs upon, 452–453
Troubadours, poetry of the, 769
Tuberculosis, artificial induction of, 554
Tulloch (Principal), Dean Stanley as a Spiritual Teacher and Theologian, 869–885
Tunis, doings of the French in, 448–454
Turton (Dean), 887–888

ULSTER, estates of Lord Dufferin in, 114–115
United States, exports of British manufactures to, 617
Unity in the Church of Christ, 120–130
Universities, Scotch, 7, 33
Urgency, the system of, in Parliament, 327–328
Usury, Jewish, 503–504, 821–822

VACCINATION, successful, nature of the protection afforded by, 547–550
Vegetable diet, 346
Venables (Canon), The Future Cathedral of Liverpool, 735–743
Victoria, legislature of, 57–59
Virchow (Professor), on the vivisection question, 942
Vivisection, morality of, 408
Vivisection, its Pains and Uses, 920–948
Village tradesmen, 265–266
Volunteers, the Coming of Age of the, 206–216

WAGES, relation of, to the price of wheat, 594, 622, 632
Weald of Kent, 303–304
Wedderburn (Sir David), Second Chambers, 56–62
Wellington (Duke of), anecdotes of, 417–418
West Indies, abolition of slavery in, 110
Wheat, home production of, a question of price, 176
Wheat, cultivation of, in Australia, 182
— nutritive properties of, 342–343
— right way of making bread from, 344–346
Whigs, past services of the, 227
— present position of, 229
Whigs, the Position of the, 901–912
Whittaker (Thomas P.), The Proposals of the Fair Trade League, 622–628
Wilks (Dr.), Vivisection, 936–948
Wilson (E. D. J.), Confiscation and Compensation, 107–119
— (Sir Rivers), his labours in Egypt, 647
Windsor Volunteer Review, the, 211
Wolf (Mr. L.) on the Anti-Jewish agitation, reply to, 494–515
Women as Civil Servants, 369–381
Wool, production of, in Australasia, 181
Wool-sorters' disease, 542
Workman's View of Fair Trade, 430–447
Worry, 423–429
Wren (Sir Christopher), his original plan for St. Paul's Cathedral, 740–743
Würtemberg, Upper Chamber of, 56

YATES (Miss), her observations on vegetable diet, 346
Yeast plant, the, 539
Youghal, Desmond's college at, 660–661
— Sir Walter Ralegh's house at, 680

ZYMOSIS, the condition of the blood in fevers, 541–542

LONDON: PRINTED BY
SPOTTISWOODE AND CO., NEW-STREET SQUARE
AND PARLIAMENT STREET